German Documents.

The Editor of the Indiana Volksblatt has printed in German the speech of Hon. D. W. VOORBERS, upon the Financial Policy and Frauds of the Administration, It makes one pamphlet of 24 pages, printed in large clear type, and will be furnished at $2 per 100 copies. Let the Germans of Indiana be well supplied with this valuable speech. All orders accompanied with the cash will be promptly attended to. Address, JULIUS BOETTICHER, Indianapolis.

A Mistake. The impression appears to prevail among many Democrats that we have no Job Office connected with the SEN-TINEL office. This is a mistake. There is no office in the city that is so well prepared to do all kinds of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING as we are (except large bill posters), and we will feel under obligations to all Democrats, not only in the city, but in the State, for any work they can send to our office. We have no public patronage to depend on to aid the paper-we ask the party to aid us with their work, as far as they can. We can do as good work, and on as good terms, as any other office.

DRAFTING .- Heavy drafts have lately been made on the boot and shoe manufacturers of Massachusetts by the proprietors of the City Shoe Store, and the stock of this house is new and complete. You can find there goods of all styles at prices that will give satisfaction. Save your money by making purchases at this long established and deservedly popular house.

The recent order authorizing furloughed en or absentees to be arrested and returned to the commandant of the post at this city, Colonel Simonson, does not apply to such soldiers as are furloughed home to await the receipt of their discharge papers, nor to such as are so ill as to not admit of traveling.

The large lots of goods that Cady & Co. the Glenns' Block, have been receiving for the past few days, have been selected with great care in Boston and the neighboring cities. They are offered to purchasers at a small profit, and the proprietor would respectfully request an examinaion, thinking that all will save time and means by coming to the great boot and shoe emporium.

Remember that the recruiting office of Lieut. James M. Buchanap, who is fast filling his company for the 12th regiment, is nearly opposite Little's Hotel. The opportunity of going this regiment will not last long, and those who desire to go had better see Lieut. Buchanan at need-plunge in!

DRAFTING .- A ridiculous report, that the Government intended to commence "drafting" men for the war, has been widely circulated by the Voorbees and Vallandigham liars of this city for a day or two past. It is a lie made of whole cloth, as the retailers of it know.

So said the Indianapolis Journal just one month ago. ARE QUAKERS EXEMPT FROM DRAFT?-This question is being mooted. The Constitution of the United States leaves the regulation of the militia to the several States. Section 6 of Art xii of the State of Indiana reads as follows:

"No person conscientiously opposed to bearing arms shall be compelled to do militia duty; but such persons shall pay an equivalent for exemption-the amount to be prescribed by law.". The law of Congress, however, under which the impending draft will be made, exempts only those who are physically disabled or are in the employ of the United States Government. It hopes the stampede does not extend to the population of Chicago, but is not sure but it does. There are some symptoms of a stampede here. We heard yesterday of three men leaving one shop, claiming that they were subjects of Queen Victoria, and felt they were in duty bound to return to her protection. We have no doubt they have been voting here for years. They might vote here, however, under one liberal clause in our Constitution, and not be citizens of the United States either. The order published in this morning's telegraph will make it difficult for others to escape.

WHOLESALE GROCERY HOUSE, INDIANAPOLIS. The capital of the State has long demanded the establishment of a wholesale grocery house, which, in solid resources and enterprise would be, in some degree, commensurate with the increased and increasing business of a leading commercial metropolis. No point in the west enjoys greater advantages as a distributing center, yet the whole sale grocery trade of the city has been conduct ed, with but few exceptions, in the famous style peculiar to the old lady that kept tavern. We could name a single house in Lafayette, and another in Madison, which have done more business, and represent more capital, and infinitely more enterprise, than all of them put together. As a citizen of Indiana, and feeling an honest pride in the capital of the State, we take pleasure in caliing attention to the conspicuous advertisement of Ruger & Caldwell, a new wholesale grocery house, which, in popular parlance, fills the bill, and supplies the desideratum. With large capi tal, ample experience, and a refreshing degree of business capacity and enterprise, we regard their success as a foregone conclusion, and we doubt not they will build up in Indianapolis one of the heaviest grocery houses in the west - Lafanette

The city ordinance against the use or rather abuse of fire arms in the city is lame or defective It allows persons to shoot on their own premises. So far as that law is concerned, a man may stand on his little twenty foot lot and shoot all day across his neighbor's premises, and plead that he was only practising or in sport. With the shocking accident that happened vesterday morning at the Madison Depot, fresh in their minds, we hope the Council to night will consider the propriety of amending the ordinance.

STATUTES OF INDIANA. GAVIN & HORD'S REVISION. The second volume of Messrs. Gavin & Hord's compiletion of Indiana Statutes has just appeared. This volume completes their work. Its mechanical execution is ver creditable; and the skill, learning, and labor which the editors have bestowed on it, merit the highest praise.

None but learned, diligent lawyers could have produced The second volume embraces all the public statutes of Indiana now in force upon the subjects to which it relates, and the first all excepting the acts of the last regular and extra sessions of the Legislature. It is a great excellence of the compilation that all existing statutes on each subject are collected together in the same place in these volumes; so that the reader can see at a glance all the legislation in force on any given subject. Take, for example, the act of 1852, organizing Courts of Common Pleas-the editors publish the act at large, and they also print, in the form of notes on the same pages containing this statute, all the acts amendatory to it which have been passed up to this time. And so they have done of all the other acts contained in the revision of 1852. The editors have added much to the value of these volumes-especially the last-by the copious and learned notes with which the volumes abound. These notes indicate much labor and legal acumen. They furnish us, in a concise and accurate form, with all the adjudications of our Supreme Court on these statutes. These adjudications being now very numerous, the references to them in the volumes under consideration, will be of great value to the lawyer, and indeed to all persons concerned in the administration of justice. The editors have also referred, in their notes, to numerous decisions in other States, made on statutes similar to ours. An excellence of these volumes, not to be overlooked is the full and accurate index appended to each. In Indiana, there pever has been a good index to any volumes of statutes published by authority. This provoking defect has been completely remedied in the volumes under review; and these indexes will greatly lighten the labor of duly reward the learned editors and enterprising publishers. Every lawyer will, of course, purchase these volumes; and every clerk, sheriff, and justice of the peace of the State, will find it to his advantage to own them. DAVID M'DONALD. Indianapolis, June 5, 1862 The foregoing notice by Judge McDonard, of Gaves & HORD's Compilation of the Statutes of Indiana, is not designed as a puff of the work, but is an unsolicited commendation of the ability, accuracy, and completeness with which these volumes have been prepared. The second volume, which has just been issued from the press, is being delivered to subscribers as rapidly as possible. This edition of the statutes will be found a necessity to every lawyer, justices of the peace, and county officers to the State. The publication of the work is a private enterprize, and the publishers' only hope for remuneration is in its sale to those for whose convenience it was prepared. The two volumes contain about 1600 pages of matter, nearly double the quantity embraced in The price of the work is $4 50 per volume, or $9 00 for the two volumes. Orders addressed to the subscriber wil receive prompt attention. J. J. BINGHAM. June 7th, 1862. Indianapolis, Ind.
